True South Tour

A detailed look at the Deep South

7 nights

7th-14th Feb

After many requests to have more time in the Deep South, here it is:

This true South tour is exactly as it sounds, a really good look at an area that people have often passed through on their way to somewhere but not had the time to take it all in and explore in more detail. We have also included our very popular night on the Navigator in Doubtful Sound and Deep Cove. This has proven to be one of the highlights for our travellers in past years. We will also have time to have a really good look around the Otago harbour, Larnachs Castle and also the coastal scenic road to Invercargill. After the Deep Cove cruise, we will have time to look around Queenstown and Arrowtown finishing up with Central Otago before heading home. We know

Wild West Coast

A detailed look at the West Coast of the South Island

7 nights

10th-17th April

Includes the Tranz Alpine Train

As with the true South Tour above, our Wild West Coast tour is a more leisurely paced, in depth look at the West Coast of the South Island. It's a bit of a theme this year that we would like to take a more detailed look at some of the hidden gems that these areas have to offer. We will be exploring right from Jacksons bay in the South up to Westport in the North and all of the places in between. We will visit some of our favourites, like the Hokitika tree top walk and Shanty town, but also have more time to look around some the West Coast towns. We will finish off this tour with a trip on the amazing Trans-Alpine train. I know for a lot of people this is a trip that you have been meaning to do for some time but haven't had the chance. This is a great opportunity to see some really remote parts of Arthurs pass from the comfort of your luxury train carriage.

We think this will be a great little additional to our yearly tour schedule, adding in a fun getaway that doesn't take too much time away from home. Molesworth, Hanmer & Akaroa

Short tour

5 nights

May TBA

A leisurely look at these three hidden gems

We have had many a request to go up and explore the Molesworth station. Molesworth Station is located behind the Inland Kaikoura Mountain range in the South Island's Marlborough district. It is New Zealand's largest farm, at over 1,800 km², and supports the country's biggest herd of cattle. It also hosts government science programs, such as research into bovine tuberculosis and related research into possums. We do an amazing day tour at this station and then after some time in Hanmer, we say farewell to Molesworth and Bonjour to Akaroa. We have never explored this French influenced seaside town on our tours and we are excited to be able to visit here and enjoy the hospitality.

VANUATU WITH DAVE MURRAY

Join Dave for a personal look tour

8 nights

July TBA

Escape the NZ winter with a Pacific Island Holiday. Covid permitting

After so much great feedback and requests by so many we are bringing back our Vanuatu adventure, again with our Vanuatu expert Dave Murray. After 1 night in Auckland on the way up we will then be spending 7 nights in Sunny Vanuatu, where you will have the opportunity to experience amazing scenery, pacific culture, and great company. Dave spent a lot of his child hood living in Vanuatu and has been taking Jill there ever since. This is a rare opportunity to experience the Island nation from a locals point of view, but with all of the comforts of a hotel and an experienced guide the whole way.

NORTH ISLAND 15 DAY TOUR

West Coast and Northland

14 nights

15th -29th August

Our feature tour for the year is back again.

A look at the West Coast of the North Island including Northland and a bus tour driving on the sand at 90 mile beach. You get to see something really different on this tour including some of NZ's very important historical areas. We have a relaxing 3 night stay in Paihia, you will have time to explore Russell and Waitangi and of course a day tour of the very top of the Island at Cape Reinga. One of the highlights is when we very skilfully manoeuvre the Coach down the forgotten highway with its quirky stops and tunnels along the way.

WELLINGTON & SURROUNDS TOUR

including the wearable Arts Show

4 nights

28th Sep-1st Oct

This year we are turning our big city spotlight on to Wellington.

After exploring Auckland last year, we think it would be a great chance to have a turn in the Capital this year. We will have a tour through parliament, a day trip to Martinbrough, a trip to Pencarrow lodge and of course plenty of time to explore the shops and Te Papa. This is a popular new type of tour for us where people really love to unpack once and stay put in one place. Of course Covid permitting we will also enjoy the world renowned Wearable Arts Show. One of my favourites, cant wait to show you around.
